

Dr Lata Aiman (nee Satyen) is a Lecturer in the School of Psychology. She teaches at the undergraduate and postgraduate levels and supervises both Honours and Higher Degree students. She is an active researcher in the fields of Cognitive Psychology and Organisational Psychology. Her areas of research interest and expertise include: Migration and its associated issues; Migrant wellbeing; Employee wellbeing; Attention; Memory.