

Name: Anurag

Sharma

Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

Anurag's main research interests include health and public economics, CGE modelling, poverty nutrition linkages and related parametric and non-parametric econometric analysis to investigate relevant policy issues. Anurag has worked on several projects, most prominent being " Poverty Traps, Nutrition, Health Status and Anti-Poverty Interventions in Rural India " funded by DFID, UK Currently he is focussing on the impact of Victorian Case Mix funding regime on allocation of resources across hospitals, waiting time management and patient choices. He is also an external affiliate to Health Econometrics and Data Group (HEDG), University of York and Centre for Applied Macroeconomic Analysis (CAMA), ANU.