Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

I was born in Kanpur, UP and migrated to Australia in 1969. I spent 25 years as a secondary school teacher, teaching Music, Drama, English and Religious Education. I then received an Australian Postgrad Award (APA) with stipend to do my PhD at Australian Catholic University. I currently teach at the Ballarat Campus of the university. Further details may be found on the Australian Catholic University web page under staff directory.
