

Name: Professor Amareswar
(First Name)

Galla
(Surname)

Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

Professor Amareswar Galla, Ph.D.

Professor Galla provides Strategic Cultural Leadership in Australia and the Pacific Asia Region as the Professor of Museum Studies at the University of Queensland in Brisbane. (<http://www.emsah.uq.edu.au>) An international authority on Museums in World Heritage Areas working with 'fingers in the dirt' Poverty Alleviation demonstration projects, he is the Guest Curator of International Projects with the Vietnam National Department of Cultural Heritage; and Founding Convener of the Pacific Asia Observatory for Cultural Diversity in Human Development (UNESCO Australia Project) (www.pacificasiaobservatory.org). He is the first Australian elected as the President of the Asia Pacific Executive Board (1998-2004) - Chairperson of the Cross Cultural Task Force (2005-2011) - and the Vice President of the International Executive Council (2004-2007) - of the International Council of Museums, Paris. He is a Trustee of the Pacific Islands Museums Association. A Board Member of Museum International, he is also the Editor-in-Chief of three leading research journals on Sustainable Heritage Development: International Journal of the Inclusive Museum (www.museum-journal.com); International Journal on Intangible Heritage (www.ijih.org); International Journal on Environmental, Cultural, Economic and Social Sustainability (www.sustainability-journal.com)