

Name: Desh

Gupta

University where Qualification obtained: London

Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

Have six books (including co-authored), one each on Australia and India, 3 on PNG and one on East Asian Crisis. Research focus currently is on India and South-east Asia. Working on a book titled, " The World is not Flat: Democracy and Political Economy of Globalisation," ; has an institutionalist's approach and has draft chapters on Australia, USA, Europe, India, plus an introductory one, which examines Thomas Friedman's "The World is Flat" and has some theoretical issues. Chapter on China is being planned and there will need to be chapters on Japan, and possibly on Brazil. Interested in collaborating with Indian academic.