

Name: Dr Sadasivam Karuppanan

Paragraph to introduce yourself: My research interests are urban and regional planning, housing, planning in developing countries, land use planning, and sustainability. I teach courses in introduction to regional and urban planning, land use planning, comparative planning, and planning information management. I also teach geographical Information Systems (GIS) and its applications in urban and regional planning