

Name: Ravneet Pawha

Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

Ravneet Pawha, Country Director Deakin University (India), has done Master's degree in Education and Training. She also has a Post graduate degree in Management. She is a gold medallist at her postgraduate studies. Ravneet has been instrumental in establishing the Australian Education venture in India and has contributed to the immense success of business not only in India but in South Asia and Middle East. She brings with her varied international experience in establishing education and training activities in India. She is a board member of Indian Society for Training and Development, National HR Forum, Education and Training committee at Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry and All India Management Association, Australia India Business Council amongst others.