

Partnering India- Business Perspectives

A business seminar was organised by the High Commission of India on 21st March 2013 at the Shangri La Hotel, Sydney. The Seminar served to showcase the current economic environment in India, the state of the economy, the evolution of the reforms process and marking India's presence as an attractive investment destination. The event highlighted the relationship between India-Australia, as countries, some of the areas of collaboration, and drew out the potential for opportunities in business, trade and investment in core areas.

The event flagged the robust development of multi-faceted relations between India- Australia bringing the focus on economic cooperation issues that provide a strong underpinning to this relationship. The event helped to explore new avenues of opportunities in trade and investment between Indian and Australian companies with emphasis on the telecom sector, logistics, infrastructure like industrial and freight corridors, integrated industrial townships, agricultural products and related back end infrastructure as cold chains, warehousing and transport , mining and steel production technologies, education sector collaborations, particularly setting up of vocational training institutes,

The event provided absorbing perspectives and insights through presentations and addresses from HE The Indian High Commissioner to Australia, companies like Infosys, Pricewaterhouse Cooper, GVK Hancock, ANZ Bank, Macquarie University related to India-Australia trade and commercial aspects.

The event was well attended by a representative cross-section of business community and related government officials.
