

Syed Ziaur Rahman is a medical scientist who did MBBS in 1995 and MD in 2000. At present, he is pursuing PhD from the School of Medicine, UWS. As a scholar, he has to his credit 4 published books, 12 important chapters in medical science book and more than 45 research papers in both national and international journals of medical science. He has attended 30 International Conferences, 50 National Conferences and 50 Workshops/Training Programs. He is involved with and/or member of 24 learned educational bodies. Many scholars and institutions have cited his works including in few Pharmacology books. Under his supervision and co-supervision, 7 candidates have completed their thesis/dissertation works.

He is the founder trustee and treasurer of Ibn Sina Academy of Medieval Medicine & Sciences, Aligarh (India) and an Associate Editor of its quarterly newsletter (NISA). He coordinated in the establishment of the Library, Museum on History of Medicine & Sciences, Centre for Safety & Rational Use of Indian Systems of Medicine (CSRUISM) & AIDS Cell as corpus body of the Academy. The Academy is listed in the Directory of History of Medicine Collections, US Department of Health and Human Services, National Library of Medicine, NIH, USA (<http://www.nlm.nih.gov/hmd/directory/151.html>). In addition, he is closely associated with 'Society of Pharmacovigilance, India (SoPI)' and started its official journal (Journal of Pharmacovigilance & Drug Safety) as editor-in-chief. He coined the term "Pharmacoenvironmentology" for the study of drugs at therapeutic doses and its impact on environment and differentiated the term with "EcoPharmacology".

He was awarded with Servier Young Investigator Award of International Union of Pharmacology (IUPHAR) in 1999 and Junior Scientist Award of Safety Pharmacological Society (USA) in 2005 and 2006, Honorary Membership of Addicted Treatment Welfare Society (Regd), Directorate of Social Welfare, Government of Punjab (Pakistan) in 2004 and WHO Fellowships to attend the 2nd Asian Course on ED & RDU in Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) and Second International Conference on Improving Use of Medicines (ICIUM 2004) in Chiang Mai (Thailand). He visited USA (thrice), Holland, UAE, Malaysia, Iran, Kenya, Hong Kong, Thailand, France, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Nepal, Australia and Austria for academic purpose.