

Name: Professor Dharmendra Sharma

Introduce yourself in a brief paragraph:

Professor Sharma has been a career academic and researcher. He has been a university academic for over 30 years and has published over 185 research publications and books. He has won several awards for his work. Prof Sharma has held several academic and management positions in Australia and overseas. He has been a research leader and has mentored several research students for higher degrees. He is a Fellow of the Australian Computer Society and has been serving as an adjunct professor to several universities. He has regularly provided consultancy to government and non-government agencies on ICT and non-ICT related projects.