

Name: Dr Alpana Sivam

Paragraph to introduce yourself: My research interests cover land use planning and sustainable development, housing policy; housing affordability and delivery system for both developed and developing countries, ageing and its impact on built form, planning, infrastructure and social policy. Dr Sivam also has research interests in issues of urban space/public space in different cultural context, environmental and cultural sustainability, architectural character and heritage, urban design and urban development.