

Shri Amitabh Bachchan Scholarship

Academic Board in 2013, with the endorsement of Prof. Rosenberg, approved the establishment of a PhD scholarship to honour one of India's greatest film luminaries, Mr. Amitabh Bachchan. The scholarship and its association with Mr. Bachchan is expected to attract significant goodwill for the University from the Indian community in Australia, the Indian diaspora overseas, and his fans in India.

Details of this scholarship can be viewed online at <http://www.latrobe.edu.au/international/fees/scholarships/research>

The scholarship covers tuition fees and living costs for up to 4 years of PhD and is meant only for Indian citizens seeking to do research in a field related to India with a preference for topics related to media/digital technology/communications.

The application deadline is 18 April 2014 to allow for the successful candidate to attend an award ceremony in May.