

July 2009 – on-going:

Position and role: Senior Lecturer in Finance, Deakin Business School, Deakin University, Melbourne; Unit Coordinator for MPF 753 Finance

Teaching area: Finance

Current research projects: Entrepreneurship and Regional Development, Low –carbon footprint strategies and CPRS, Business Models of Advanced manufacturing and Business services sectors, Corporate Governance

Grants received in 2010: CPA Australia, 'Transition to a low-carbon footprint'

Professional membership: Regular member Chartered Financial Analysts Institute (CFA Institute), Charlottesville, Virginia, USA

December 2003 – June 2009:

Position and role: Lecturer/ Senior Lecturer, Graduate School of Management, La Trobe University, Melbourne; Visiting Professor in Finance, Burgundy School of Business, Dijon, France [2005]; and taught in Hanoi, Vietnam and Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia for La Trobe University; supervised 32 Masters Research project to completion; Unit Coordinator and Lecturer for Overseas Research projects to France and Vietnam

Teaching areas: Corporate Finance, Investment valuation [Advanced Management Finance], International Finance, Business Analysis and Modelling, Organisational Behaviour

Research Projects: Business models of small and medium sized enterprises, Corporate governance

Grants received: Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Local Government, 'Innovating and Strengthening Regional Industry' matched by Faculty of Law and Management, La Trobe University

School, Faculty and University roles: Program Director, Master of International Business; Director, Teaching and Learning; Member- Faculty Human Ethics Committee

Prior to 2003, I also taught at James Cook University, Cairns, Australia; Ethiraj College, Chennai, India; University of Technology, Lae, Papua New Guinea. Received University Grants Commission, India (UGC) Senior and Junior Fellowship for completing PhD.